Our First Birthday Party

—a healthy, thriving infant, too, if there ever was one. In one short year we've earned a reputation with St. Louisans that money can't buy. We've proved that our policy of selling direct from the maker is a sound one; that the values we've offered were unbeatable, and that the quality of our clothes goes deeper than just the outside beauty or first-time perfect fit.

Thousands upon thousands have come here. They have examined with a skeptical eye. They have compared our quality; our styles; our tailoring; our values-and then backed up their judgment with their hard-earned cash.

We've enjoyed a wonderful year-far greater than our fondest expectations. Bigger, perhaps, than any like institution has ever had. To thank you for your patronage is insufficient. We want to show our appreciation in a bigger way, so are offering a value-giving event that will start off our second year even bigger than the first.

A Big New Shipment of 2-Pants Suits-All go in at the one low price to help celebrate. These are $10 to $15 under their present market value!

By Sheer Merit

-Aronberg

HE fact that Aronberg's is known as "THE Diamond Store of St. Louis" is not an accident. For years and years I have been building, and building, and building, with one aspiration in mind, and that is of being known as A JEWELER WHO CAN BE DE-PENDED UPON.

The measure of success that I have attained proves the fact that it pays to give people what they want, at a price they are glad to pay and on terms that mean no hardships to them. Whenever you read any of my announcements, l want you to know that you are always welcome to my store—unhampered by any hint to purchase. In other words, you are JUST AS WELCOME WHETHER YOU COME IN TO BUY OR SIMPLY TO LOOK AROUND.

Dr. Tikhon Quickly Degraded by All-Russian Church After Fiery Prosecutor Speaks.

MOSCOW, May 4 .- The scene i the All-Russian church conclave which voted yesterday to unfrock the mest Rev. Dr. Tikhon, former pa-triarch of All Russia, and deprived him of his monkship, was similar to that of the gathering which, in 1317, elected Dr. Tikhon as patri-mrch, but in all the sea of whiskered faces of priests and laymen making up the conclave, it seemed that few, any, defenders of the patriarc could be found.

His prosecutor in the church pro ceedings was the Petrograd apostolic priest, Vedensky, a firm and flery believer in the idea that the Communist regime as materialistical-ly practicing the precepts of the original Christianity. He is a con-summate oratorical artist with a forceful presence and the dramatic gestures of a great tragedian.

After kissing the hand of Metro-politan Peter and being blessed by Bishop Antonin, Vedensky made the sign of the cross on his black-garbed breast, and began his dis-course. "loday's assembly not only is a conclave." he said, "but a court justice. It is the great day of judement."

The new ideal of Christianity was growing, despite the fact that capitaltsm had bought up "even Christi-anity, which elected Rockefeller and Christ as its leader," said the Capitalism a Sin. formerty was a tool of the Czar and Tikhon was a worker against the revolution by pronounce ing anathema on Socialists who "Our ethical duty before the world is to pronounce capitalism a sin," Vedensky exclaimed. Refuting the accusation that the conclave had been called to condemn . Dr. Tikhon, Vedensky added: "If you believe Tikhon, follow him; but yourself in martyrdom; be true to yourselves. But if you do not believe in him, you must agree to the un-frocking of him. You must choose between Tikhon and Christ."

Metropolitan Peter, who acted as chairman, hastened to put the resolution calling for the degradation of the patriarch to a vote. Appeals to be heard were ignored, Peter declaring that the business before the con clave must be finished. He demanded that all in favor of the resolution lift their hands. In the darkness of the room, it seemed that something more than half the number of delegates raised their hands and that the other delegates were taken by surprise at the suddenness of the vote. Negatively only one hand was raised.

Anathemas Lifted. The resolution made on recom mendation for the civil punishment of Dr. Tikhon, but in addition to unfrecking him it lifts the anathemas the church pronounced on the soviet Government and the Red clergy. It calls upon humanity to witness that the world is now divided into two classes—capitalist and proletariat. and clergymen alike to march together against counter-revolution and with the soviet in the struggle

There were no soldiers or other signs of Government interference in the smoothly working organiza-tion, which in three hours con-demned the patriarch. Bishop Edgar Blake of Chicago, head of the American Methodist Episcopal Church of Southern Europe, who attended the conclave, recently told the Associated Press that he considered the delegates to the conclave had been fairly and democratically

Dr. Tikhon was not present, being still in prison, where he is awaiting trial on charges of opposing the soviet regime. The conclave in depriving Dr. Tikhon of his monkship, proclaimed him to be henceforth an ordinary citizen under his law name of Basil Ivanovitch Balfavin.

These undoubtedly found it more prefitable to employ con helpless, with no one to complain to and could therefore be treated as brutally as the company officials desire in order to get more profit out of them regardless as to their health. POLEMARCHUS: I did not take it so seriously as that. The conference looked to me like the consequence of the campaign by Bryanus against evolution, and I thought it to more than a demonstration by people who hink as he does.

SOCRATES: That is, of course, what it is in part: but evolution is merely one of the things against which the conference protests. It is really taking up arms against a sea of troubles in theology. We are apparently going to have a reaction from liberal interpretations of what are known as the fundamental truths of religion, and unless I miss my guess a good many Darwins and Percy Grants are going to get hadly chewed up before we get through with it. There is a much greater undercurrent of indignation against modern theories of how the carth was made and man was put upon it to make it bloody than might be suspected by people who live in big cities, which may be said to have all the liberal preachers and most of the liberal congregations.
THRASYMACHUS: I dare say.

SOCRATES: If Ku Klux and prohibition are notional phenomena, which can scarcely be doubted, as neither can be ascribed to political or social science, then how much easier must it be for us to arouse ourselves emotionally over some religious issue in which we have very deep feeling, since from religious impulse came the Crusades, the Thirty Years' War, the Inquisition, and most of the purely emotional henomena which make history spectacular.

GLAUCON: Jove, yes!

SOCRATES: The fundamentalists think liberalism and science are destroying religion.

They are for doing something about it. They feel precisely as the Puritans of New England feel about dangerings form the Puritans forth. felt about departures from the Puritan faith. Quakerism, for instance, threatened Puritanism because it differed from it in minor respects. BANISHED NEW WAY

Each One Gently Lifted Away

TIRED lines, tiny crows' feet, deep-entirely unnecessary! For a mar-velous new cream has been discovered which smooths them away, as if by a touch of a magic wand.

This new discovery is called Domino
Wrinkle Cream. It works on an entirely new principle. Most treatments merely try to conceal or cover up wrinkles. But this new treatment gets the underlying cause of wrinkles, re-moves it, and as it does so each line and wrinkle is gently lifted away, revealing a new smooth and wonderfully youthful complexion. Even after the first few days' use, the face appears years younger looking.

Why let unsightly lines and wrinkles

why let unsigntly lines and wrinkles rob you of your youthfulness and charm, when they can now be made to disappear so easily? Domino Wrinkle Cream is guaranteed to banish each and every wrinkle, and a special $10,000 bank deposit backs up this guarantee. Your money instantly re-funded if not more than delighted with results. You can get Domino Wrinkle results. You can get Domino Wrinkle Cream at good drug and department

JEWELER SAYS ROBBER

Reports 46 Diamond Rings Were Taken by Negro in Franklin Av. Store Holdup.

William Ash, a jeweler at 1306 Franklin avenue, in reporting that an armed negro held him up in his store at 8:20 a. m. today, said that 46 diamond rings and 12 scarf pins, which he valued at $3426.38, were stolen. He said he carried theft insurance amounting to $2000.

In describing the robber to the police, Ash said that he recognized him as a negro who attempted to steal a diamond ring from him a few days before last Christmas. Ash gave a Post-Dispatch reporter the following account of today's hold-

Ash was arranginng his show window display when the negro, carrying a revolver, entered the store and ordered him to "bring o that tray of rings." Ash placed the tray on the counter in front of the negro, and, at the latter's command cked to the rear part of the store. The negro dumped the rings and pins into the pockets of his raincoat and

Ash then got his revolver from s table near the showcase and ran out in search of the negro, but the latter had disappeared.

"I knenw him the minute I heard his voice," said Ash. "He had the drawl of a Southern darkey. When he was in here the first time he asked me to show him some dia-mond dings. I saw him put a ring in his pocket. Then I got my revol-ver and struck him on the face several times. He put the rinng back in the tray andn ran out."

Ash's wife and daughter were in their living apartmentns above the store when the holdup occurred to day, but they were ignorant of what was going on in the store until they heard Ash yelling that he had been robbed. Ash latter gave the police a detailed description of the robber.

(Copyright, 1923, by the Christy Walsh Syndicate.) Atlantic Ocean and the American navy hastening to the West Indies to intercept it before it should have a chance to strike a blow at the American coast. Admiral Sampson was sent along the northern coast of Cuba, as far east as Porto Rico, while Admiral Schley was sent along the southern coast.

When Admiral Cervera and his fleet reached the waters of the West Indies, he heard that Sampson was lying in wait for him, so he headed for the southern coast of Cuba. He had brought along a lot of supplies for the Spanish army, and he had to find some way of getting these supplies to army headquarters at Havana. If Sampson were not going to let him approach from the north, he would land his supplies at Cienfuegos, a port on the southern coast, connected with Havana by rail.

But there were rumors that Admiral Schley and his famous flying squadron were coming around the west end of Cuba to parol the southern coast. They had not arrived yet, and Admiral Cervera would have had plenty of time to reach Cienfuegos in safety, but he did not know that, and so he put into the harbor of Santiago, on the eastern end of the island. Here he intended to repair his engines, coal ship, and then start north to bombard various American cities along the Atlantic coast.

The Spanish ships were so well concealed behind the headlands of Santiago harbor that it was some days before the Americaus, who had been sure that Cervera would go to Cienfuegos, discovered their hiding place. What a help just one little aeroplane

As soon as the Spanish fleet was located, the American ships drew up across the harbor mouth in a strong blockade line, and Admiral Cervera found himself in the very unpleasant position of a mouse in a hole with an enthusiastic and very efficient cat

The channel into Santiago harbor is very narrow at one point, and it was here that Lieutenant Hobson made his famous attempt to block the channel by sinking the Merrimac. This sturdy old would have been a very effective cork for the neck of the bottle, had she sunk the right way, that is, broadside across the channel. Unfortunately, the current swung her around, so that her hull did not entirely block up the harbor entrance. There was

All through the month of June, the American fleet, commanded by Admiral Sampson, lay before Santiago harbor, watchfully waiting. But nothing happened. The Spanish ships made no move. They dared not come out, and the Americans dared not go in Stalemate. There seemed nothing more that the navy could do. The army must come and capture the city of Santiago. Then when the Spanish fleet found itself caught between the guns of the fort and the guns of the American battleships, it would have to sur-

Perhaps she is thinking of her first breakfast with John. (How good the Coffee was on their honeymoon!) Or, of later breakfasts amid the prattle of little children. (Why, it seems only yesterday that she cuddled John, Jr., on her knee as she sipped her breakfast cup of Coffee!)

Grandma is seventy now—although she does not look it—and she has gone far along the Pathway of Life. But there has not been a morning in fifty years when that steamin' cup of Coffee has not helped to make life more enjoyable.

Truly—there is warmth and good cheer in a wholesome cup of Coffee. And the thousands upon thousands of hale and hearty grandmothers who drink it are proof that there is good health in it, too!

Of the $12,000,000 there is on deposit in Kansas City approximately $9,000,000, and in the First National Bank in St. Louis appreximately $3,000,000. The intention is to offer to St. Louis banks a part of the fund now held in Kansas City, which Louis and Kansas City banks about Look for This Label

ately advertise for bids from banks throughout the State for the full $12,000,000, and that the deposits in St. Louis and Kansas City at 3 per cent would be only until other banks bid for the money. The average rate paid by State depositories is 5.13 per cent, bid two years ago. While the depositories technically bid for a definite proportion of all State funds. many of them have refused to take heir allotment on the ground that they could not provide the security demanded by the State.

The State funds are let in eightieths. At the time of the bidling one-eightieth was about $150 .-000, while now, because of the sale of State road bonds, it is about $350,-000. Many banks did not want to accept that amount of money at the high interest rate bid, and the Treas-urer was forced to deposit temporarily in Kansas City and St. Louis banks at a lower interest rate.

The Nature's Doctor has probably given more comfort in a stylish shoe to more people in this country than any other corrective shoe ever designed.

The appearance of this stylish shoe doesn't suggest a Doctor's Prescription or look like a Medicine Chest and yet "The Nature's Doctor" embodies all the authentic orthopedic features endorsed by leading foot specialists.

Most foot troubles have been caused by wearing the wrong size or the wrong shape of shoe, and the real function of a corrective shoe is to give the twisted, distorted and cramped bones of the arch and foot an opportunity to function as Nature intended.

If you will step into one of our Stores and step into a pair of these shoes, you will get immediate relief and enjoy foot comfort with no extra charge for added comfort features.

if as popular on Main Street as on Broadway. By means of this rollicking reel the latest funny story from Manhattan is flashed on the screen in Oskaloosa; and the drollest doings from Oshkosh convulse the audiences on the Gay White Way. It is the nation's Ambassador of Good Cheer, broadcasting the merriment and humor of each section of the country to every other part. Hundreds of requests for this mirthful movie have been received by The Literary Digest from theatrical directors in towns of five thousand and less. But

"FUN from the PRESS" is also international. It contains the best of the comic comments on the questions of the hour, the keenest wit, the funniest varns, and the eleverest banter of the newspaper jokesmiths from every quarter of the globe. It produces more laughs per foot of film than any other cinema entertainment. And a new edition is compiled weekly. Watch for it at your favorite motion-picture theater. Why 6 Women in 8 Have Dull. Unattractive Hair

Science has recently made amazing discoveries. It is now known that hair roots seldom really die. They can be revived-given new life We have proved that conclusively by regrowing hair on 91 heads in 100.

The method we use is new. Years of exhaustive experiments were spent perfecting it.

Now world-great dermatologists employ these ingredients. Some charge as much as $500 for the same basic treatment.

Falling hair, dull, lifeless hair; hair without sheen or lustre 6 women in 8 have it.

The reason for most of it is a very simple infection. An infected scalp oil called Sebum. This new way quickly overcomes it. It starts to act instantly, The effect is soon marked.

But frequently it becomes infected. It cakes on the scalp; clogs the follicles and plugs them. Go to the mirror and you can see it in your hair, either in the form of dandruff or in that of an oily excretion at the hair roots.

Germs by the millions breed in it, then feed upon the hair. Soon your hair begins falling. ou note too how lifeless it appears. In a short time, all the natural lustre and beauty are gone.

But - and note this scientific fact - remove the infected Sebum and the hair reverts back to the softness and brilliancy it displayed when you were a school girl.

Melto has performed wonders for hundreds of men and women. Letter after letter comes to us from people who have used Melto—with almost unbelievably remarkable results. One woman tells us she reduced her bust, in a few months, from 55 inches to 86—simply by applying Melto. Another woman—an actress—tells us how Melto reduced herankles to a graceful ellimness, and incidentally, kept her from losing her job. A man whose abdomen was uncomfortably large tells us that Melto

Melt Your Excess Fat With Melto! It's the Only Sensible Way to Reduce. THE trouble is that most fat people aren't fat all l over. A woman with a double chin-or perhaps > bust that is too large will go on a strenuous diet and what happens? Her face gets haggard and drawn-she is continually hungry and irritable—and nine chances out of ten she doesn't get thin in the right places at all! Or a man with a too-prominent abdomen will roll on the floor and writhe in all kinds of agonizing tortures, and after a few months, he's lost weight, perhaps, but also disposition—and his abdomen is doubtless just as much out of proportion as ever.

Reduce Only Where You Need to Reduce!

The sensible thing to do-if you're not as slender and graceful as you'd like to be is to reduce with Meltowhich reduces you where you're too stout-and not where vou don't need it.

It Takes Only Five Minutes a Day!

Melto is a pleasantly fragrant, rose-tinted reducing cream. You spend only five minutes a day applying it—externally—just where you want to reduce—nowhere else. And what happens then? Why, in a very short time your excess fat simply melts away. Melto is instantly absorbed by the skin. It affects only the excess fat—nothing else. Your muscles take on a new firmness, your skin becomes fresh and smooth, and—because you are rid of your excess fat—your general health improves perceptibly. Your eyes grow brighter, your step becomes lighter, and your-whole body loses that depressing sense of fatigue and becomes permeated with a new sense of well-being—a new joy of living. being-a new joy of living.

The Melto way is the only sensible way to reduce. It takes no time at all. It is perfectly safe and pleasant to use, perfectly simple to apply—and the results are just what you want them to be.

Is there any sense in spending your whole time and energy reducing by questionable methods when the Melto way is so safe, so sensible, so inexpentive and so satisfactory?

VINCENT RICHARDS IS GREATLY IMPROVED PLAYER THIS SEASON

NEW YORK, May 4 .- Vincent Rich ards, the young tennis player who may one day succeed W. T. Tilden as the American champion, is in better shape than ever before in his career. He has taken on more than 20 nounds in weight since the close of the outdoor season and the addi of the outdoor season and the addi-tional avoiderpois has benefitted him greatly. He is getting astonishing pace at times in his ground strokes. Softness of drive has often in the past been pointed out as one of the weaknesses of Richard's game. It was admitted that he placed heauti-fully, that no fault was to be found with his generalship, but that lack of with his generalship, but that lack of pace robbed his attack of consedera-ble efectiveness. The contention was berne out in some of Richards' most important matches.

There were numerous occasions in the indoor matches, recently when Richards roused himself, speeded up his attack, and fairly made the ball whistle as it shot across too fast for his opponents to have any hope of a return.

Richards did not employ the powerful shot recklessly. He still prefers to return service rather than take a chance with a low sizzling shot. He is content to employ his speed when he has more or less an opportunity to set himself, but it has been noted that he employs it far more often than he did in the past

In one respect Richards has not gone ahead and that is in the control of his first service. It is still lack-Richards has as baffling a ing. Richards has as baltang a first service as any player would wish for speed, break and deception—but he gets it over about once in every four tries, and that is scarcely a favorable average. His volleying, smashing and all around versatility are just as supberh as ever.

CONSTITUTION DELEGATES VOTE TO ABOLISH PROBATE COURTS

Would Confer Their Jurisdiction on Circuit Court and Have at Least Two Judges in Each Circuit.

JEFFERSON CITY, May 4 .- The constitutional convention yesterday voted to recommend the abolition of probate courts, to provide for at least two Circuit Judges in each circuit and to sweep away, the present custom of holding Circuit Court only at certain times fixed by law.

The convention upon motion of Henry P. Lay of Warsaw would do away with probate courts entirely by conferring their jurisdiction on circuit courts and providing that each circuit judge hold court in each county in the circuit at least once each year. The proposal is silent on the question of "terms of court," all such matter having been struck out on motion of John R. Baker of Fulton, who urged that the present system of hard and fast terms made only for delay in the disposal of litigation. At present most delays in trial of cases are from term to term, which unneces-sarlly drags out both civil and criminal cases and very often works against the ends of justice, he said. Baker suggested that putting the question of when and how often courts should be held in the hands of a judge would mean that officers could hold court whenever he could group enough cases together to jus-right tify a session, which ought to expedite the handling of litigation. An effort today to re-refer the report of the Judiciary Committee back to that body was overwhelmingly defeated.

FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1923 Cool Floor Covering

for Summer

By Mrs. Christine Frederick

T used to be the fashion for carpets to remain on the floor season after season without change. But the hygienic hand of time has today so altered the sanitary viewpoint of the housekeeper that she now changes her floor coverings with the advent of warm weather just as naturally as she does her hat and her underwear. And there are various advantages in selecting ings for summer. Any heavy rug with a thick pile, whether it be real or imitation Persian, Wilton or Brussels, looks warmer and gives an effect of stuffiness to a room which the suchmer rug does not. And it is better economy to lay away such heavy and more expensive carpets and give them a rest, as it were, and to substitute less expensive ones which are really

Drummer Is Filled With Pride and Joy

By Thornton W. Burgess

A secret's safe only with those Whose feelings no one ever knows.

Farmer Brown's dooryard and saw for the first time the white egg which it contained his joy and pride knew no bounds. There wasn't a prouder bird in all the Great World unless it was Mrs. Drummer. He wanted to fly right away to the Old Orchard and tell all his friends about it. Yes, sir: that is just what he wanted to do. He was so proud that he just couldn't keep it to himself.

But Mrs. Drummer understood just exactly how Drummer felt and what was in his mind. As he made ready to fly over to the Old Orchard she stopped him. "One minute, my dear." said she. "You know you are not to tell a single soul about this egg or about this nest."

"But-but I want to tell. I am so happy I just must tell. Why shouldn't I tell now that the home is finished?" retorted Drummer.

"Are you quite erazy !" demanded Mrs. Drummer. "The longer we can keep this home a segret the better. What people don't know won't hurt them. As for telling anyone about that egg, don't you dare think of such a thing! News like that travels. Sooner or later someone with a fondness for eggs would be sure to hear it. Now promise me, Drummer, that you won't say a word."

Drummer promised. There was nothing else for him to do. Then he flew over to the Old Orchard. But he didn't stay long. He just couldn't keep away from that maple tree. He had to be where he could peep in as often as he pleased to see that wonderful egg. The next morning when he looked in there were two eggs. Drummer tried to think that he was twice as happy, but as he had been just about as happy as he could be over the first egg there, he couldn't be twice as happy. fLSON MISNER, the playwright, spent several years in the Klondike at the height of the gold rush, when life was uncertain. Reports came back to his home in San Francisco that he had been shot—or shot at—by a bad man in one of the mining camps. When he returned from the Alaskan wilds, a fellow Californian, meeting him on the street, asked for details regarding the affray. "We heard down here that you had rather a close call," he said. Tell me just what happened."

"Well," said Misner, "it was like this: In a saloon one night something I said or did gave offense to a professional gunman. Before I had time to explain that I meant no personal reflection upon him he'd cone into action. He yanked a big 44-caliber pistol out of his holster and just as I turned to get away he cracked down on me at a distance and not more than 19 feet. Before he could shoot the second time I was of not more than 10 feet. Before he could shoot the second time I was out of the door."

"Then he missed you?" said his friend.
"No," said Misner, "he hit me right between the shoulders."
"You must have been pretty badly hurt, then?"
"No, just a slight flesh wound."

"A flesh wound at that range? I don't understand why he didn't a hole clear through you."

"Well, you see," said Misner, "by the time that guy could pull trigger I was traveling so fast that the builet only went in about a warter of an inch."
